NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

HORNE'S
PATENT SINCH FASTENER!

CAN BE USED ON PACK, RIDING AND SIDE Saddles. A child large enough to lift a saddle on a horse can tighten up the girth with ease. It is very simple in construction, never gets out of repair, is safe, convenient and entirely different from the old method.

State, Territorial and County Rights for sale. For the Pacific States and Territories, address C. H. HORNE, Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon. Atlantic States, address J. W. GEARHART, care of Messrs. Barnet, Staines & Ballard, Newark, N. J.

We respectfully refer to the following Card:

Having examined the New Patent Sinch or Belly Band Fastener, invented by C. H. Horne, of Astoria, Oregon, we take pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is one of the easiest, quickest and best method of tightening a saddle girth that has ever been in use. It also has an advantage over all others in use in being able to tighten your saddle girth without dismounting.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 9

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—In the Senate, Morton from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a bill making it a misdemeanor to fit out ships of war with the intent that they be employed in the service of any European power or State for the purpose of subjugating American colonies claiming independence, and providing for the forfeiture of such vessels.

Chandler, from Committee on Commerce, reported without amendment, a bill to regulate the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northwestern and northeastern frontiers of the United States.

Bayard, from Committee on Finance, reported a bill to relieve public charities from taxation.

Corbett introduced a bill amending the act granting lands in aid of the construction of a railroad from the Central Pacific to Portland, Oregon; referred.

Abbott introduced a bill providing for the adjustment of claims of Southern loyalists for stores furnished for the army of Kentucky, a commission to be appointed by the President.

Kellogg introduced a bill in aid of freedmen, and for the purpose of subdividing the public domain of certain States into forty acre tracts for homesteads for the colored race.

Fowler submitted a resolution, which was laid over under objection, that it is apparent that the currency and finances are rapidly approaching a specie basis; and that the Secretary of the Treasury be instructed to dispose of the surplus gold in the Treasury, to secure the highest premium thereon.

Williams introduced a joint resolution for the redemption of legal tenders. It provides that import duties may be paid one-half in greenbacks.

Wilson introduced a bill to promote civilization among Indians and prepare them for the rights of citizenship. It provides for five civilian commissions to act with the Secretary of the Interior.

Wilson also introduced a bill for the temporary relief of the District of Columbia.

The funding bill was taken up and discussed by Sherman, Corbett and Davis. Sherman spoke in defence of the bill, particularly the clause providing for the payment of a commission of one per cent. for negotiating the loan, and in opposition to the motion of Corbett to strike out the sentence making the interest payable at the U. S. Treasury and in the cities of London, Paris, Berlin, Amsterdam and Frankfort. Corbett argued in favor of his motion. Davis argued in support of his motion to recommit the bill with instructions.

In the House, Schenck, of the Committee of Ways and Means, made a statement in reply to certain resolutions from the New York Department of the Grand Army of the Republic, praying that no tax be levied by the Government on crippled soldiers for playing hand organs. Voorhies made a privileged statement denying the telegram in the New York Evening Post, saying that the committee of investigation had charged his having appointed a cadet from Pennsylvania. Logan, chairman of the Military Committee, remarked that there had been no allegation of the kind made against Voorhies, and no witnesses were examined relative to him.

The House resumed the consideration of the Georgia bill. Wood protested against the bill as a precedent for establishing a Congressional oligarchy. It was a revolutionary, audacious and monstrous measure. The Reconstruction Committee dictated to Congress; the gentlemen from Massachusetts, Butler, dictated to the Reconstruction Committee, so the rights of States all depend on the whim of one man.

Butler rose to close the debate and advocate the bill. The question was then on Bingham's amendment providing that nothing in this act shall be construed to vacate any offices in the State when elected by the people or appointed by the Government, nor to extend the official tenure of any office in said State beyond the constitutional term thereof, nor to deprive the people of Georgia of the right under the Constitution to elect Senators and Representatives for the State of Georgia in the year 1870. The amendment was agreed to, ayes 114, noes 71. The bill as amended was passed. The vote on the passage of the bill was a strict party vote. Bingham voted for it; Farnsworth did not vote. Butler, of Massachusetts, said he voted for the bill simply because he desired the ratification of the fifteenth amendment. He would not be found voting on a political question with the Democrats.

Stevenson offered a resolution authorizing the President to furnish a steamer and tender for the arctic voyage under Capt. C. F. Hall, and appropriating $10,000 for the expenses thereof, referred to the Committee on appropriations. Adjourned.

Washington Matters in General

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The Reconstruction Committee this morning considered the question of the power of Congress to exercise authority in Tennessee to remedy alleged outrages in certain affairs there, but adjourned without definite action. Congressmen Maynard and Arnell were before the committee giving information in regard to affairs in that State. Butler said he had no doubt of the power of Congress to interfere with the authorities of Massachusetts should a proper occasion arise.

The House Judiciary Committee heard further argument on the McGarrahan case by C. P. Shewny, which charged that fraud, perjury and forgery had been freely employed to mislead the Supreme Court and influence its decision against the claim of McGarrahan.

The President, in a communication to the House to-day, incloses a communication from the Secretary of the Interior relative to the obligations of Congress to make the necessary appropriations to carry out the Indian treaties made by the Peace Commissioners in 1867. The President earnestly desires that if the Indians are to become unmanageable the Government, at least, should not be responsible. The Secretary of the Interior says that complaints are made by Indians in all the Territories of the encroachment of the whites on their reservations and this lack of faith in the promise of the government. Expeditions are constantly being fitted out by whites to explore their reservations in search of mines or for the purpose of settlement. Reports from every quarter show that the uncertainty in regard to the policy to be pursued by the government, and especially in reference to treaties made in 1867, has produced a general disorganization. The whites and settlers are denying the rights of the Indians, and the latter are upbraiding the whites with breach of faith. The Secretary expresses his belief that a fair investigation would show that it is unfair to put the whole blame on the savages. He concludes by saying, aside from any objections of a Christian nature, under such circumstances, he thinks as a mere question of economy, it will be better to feed every adult Indian during his natural life, while the children are educated to self support by agriculture, than it would be to carry on a general Indian war for a single year. He urges the giving policy throughout.

Secretary Boutwell has reported against the utility of a mint at New Orleans, holding that the Philadelphia mint is sufficient for the Atlantic States, and the San Francisco mint was sufficient for the Pacific States. In view of this fact Senator Kellogg to-day introduced a resolution looking to the reversion of the mint property at New Orleans to the city, as it was ceded to the Government for mint purposes only.

The Senate, in Executive session to-day, after confirming two internal revenue nominations, took up the nomination of Enos Hopkins for Postmaster at Nashville, Tennessee. An animated discussion ensued, the nomination being favored by Senator Brownlow and strongly opposed by Fowler, who urged his rejection. In accordance with a long established usage of the Senate conceding to every Senator the right to demand that no confirmation shall be made from his own city or neighborhood of one who is personally objectionable to him, the Senate finally rejected the nomination.

CHICAGO, March 9.—The Tribune's Washington specials say the Cuban struggle in the Senate Foreign Committee is over for the present. Morton's bill, reported yesterday, being regarded as its ultimatum. The bill simply prohibits the fitting out of vessels for use by any foreign power against its enemies claiming independence. It has nothing to do with a state of belligerency or insurrection, and will not benefit Cuba to any considerable extent, Spain having all the vessels she wants. The section prohibiting the buying of arms and munitions of war, which might have been of some advantage to Cubans, was stricken out by the committee.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The last mail from Havana brought reports to the State Department, which it is understood show a more complete demoralization in the insurgent camps than has hitherto prevailed.

The vote in the House sustaining Bingham's amendment to the Georgia bill, stood [illegible] Democrats and 62 Republicans, against 2 Republicans on the side of the Reconstruction Committee. Bullock and his friends are disappointed at the adoption of Bingham's proposal, and will probably endeavor to defeat it in the Senate, but the chances of success are not favorable.

The House Committee on Commerce agreed to report a bill for the transportation of imported goods in bulk. Louisville and Port Huron are added in the bill.

Republican Victory in New Hampshire

NEW YORK, March 9.—A Tribune's special says they have returns from three-fourths of the State of New Hampshire, leaving no doubt of the election of Stearns for Governor, and Chas. H. Geige Railroad Commissioner, by a majority of 1,000 to 1,500. The Republicans elect all Councillors but one, and have a majority in both branches. Stearns has a majority of 1,500 over three opposing candidates. The popular vote shows that the Republicans hold their own in the State, while the Labor Reform party draw all their strength from the Democratic ranks.

San Domingo News.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Port au Prince dates to February 25th have been received, via Havana. Executions and imprisonments of the adherents of Salnave continue. A letter from San Domingo of February 24th says the revolution is extending and becoming more general on the Island, and aid is asked from abroad. The revolutionists declare that a majority of the inhabitants are opposed to annexation to the United States.

Revolution in Venezuela

Advices from Carracas of February 25th state that the Venezuela revolutionists are fast multiplying. Monagas' government is considered in a critical condition. Gov. Monagas, with 10,000 soldiers had gone to Coro to fight Gen. Blanco, and disturbances are now admitted throughout the entire Republic.

From Jamaica

HAVANA, March 9.—Late advices are received from the Island of Jamaica. The Governor would soon leave for England where it is expected he would remain. A memorial of citizens of Jamaica had been prepared and presented to the Governor asking the British Government to subsidize a line of steamers to run between the Island of Jamaica and Port au Prince.

From Cuba.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A dispatch from Havana yesterday says 90 insurgents, commanded by Orvando, who left Inigulra, had arrived near Guines, 40 miles from Havana. Troops from all points in the surrounding country are marching against them.

New York News.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Sam Collyer has written explaining the cause of his defeat by Billy Edwards, which he attributes to the fact that his jaw was broken on the first round.

A committee waited upon Seward to-day, and presented him a copy of resolutions congratulating him on his safe return.

A private dispatch is alleged to have been received to-day by an influential house announcing the failure of four or five leading cotton speculators in Liverpool and Manchester, with liabilities estimated at £1,000,000.

The Gold Bulls in New York.

CHICAGO, March 9.—New York specials say the gold clearance in Wall street, yesterday, exceeded $110,000,000. The bulls suffered fearfully, and many rumors of failures were circulated. Dawson & Hopkins are reported to have lost to exceed half a million. It is generally believed that prominent parties in Washington were interested in the gold speculation and invested largely. There is great distrust in the dry goods market, and failures are predicted.

From Southern States

JACKSON, (Miss.) March 9.—The Legislature met yesterday. Business was confined to the appointment of committees on preliminary organization. Governor Alcorn will be inaugurated to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Belknap has received a telegram from Texas announcing that the Senator elect, Hamilton, is en route to Washington, bearing the official notification of the ratification by the Legislature of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments.

Reunion of the Knights of Pythias

NEW YORK, March 9.—Representatives from sixteen States attended the annual reunion of the Knights of Pythias in this city, yesterday. The reunion adjourned to-day, pending the consideration of resolutions to appoint a committee to prepare two new higher degrees for the order.

Female Suffrage Act Vetoed in Minnesota.

CHICAGO, March 9th.—Gov. Austin vetoed the Female Suffrage bill, passed by the Minnesota Legislature on the ground that the clause submitting the amendment to females as well as males is unconstitutional, females not being legal voters. The Governor also objected to the proposition as being premature.

The Wisconsin Legislature indefinitely postponed the bill for the removal of the Capital to Milwaukie, 57 to 36.

New Hampshire Election Returns.

CONCORD, N. H., March 9.—Later returns say 147 towns, over two thirds of the State, indicate that Stearns is probably elected by 1,000 to 1,500 majority. The Legislature is Republican with a majority reduced from last year.

New York Gold Excitement.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The excitement in the gold market to-day, has been without parallel since September last. The anxiety of some gold dealers assumed a shape of mania, the equal of which was never before witnessed. In the room, the fluctuations were unusually frequent. Dealers recorded nearly one hundred changes during the day. The scene was almost indescribable. Everywhere in financial and commercial circles the gold question was the great topic of conversation, as it continued its downward course. It was felt through all the ramifications of business. The excitement was intensified by all manner of rumors from Washington, which caused repeated fluctuations in price. The decline of gold had a tendency to further unsettle business in mercantile circles, and weaken prices. This was particularly applicable to the department of dry goods.

PARIS, March 8.—The Marseillaise this morning publishes a violent letter from Rochefort and other political prisoners.

A meeting was held last evening for the purpose of organizing a Society called Friends of Order. Several hundred people assembled. Speeches were made and resolutions adopted denouncing the recent rioting and disorder in Paris.

At a political banquet last night, Ollivier made a remarkable speech. He urged all political parties to give the Ministry their assistance and advice, and not keep aloof because of the errors that had been or might be committed by the Ministry. He closed with the prediction that in spite of difficulties and accidents unforeseen, the Ministry would succeed.

Eight hundred ... to-day formed in line and, with a crape banner at their head, marched through the streets to the publication office of the ..., where they halted and sang the Marseillaise Hymn, after which they quietly dispersed. The police made no attempt to interfere with the proceedings.

The religious organs have advices from Rome which represent that the Pope, in response to a request of the great majority of the bishops, had distributed among the members of the Council, a scheme proposing the definition of the dogma of infallibility with a notice that suggestions of the fathers on the same will be received until the ... Dispatches from other sources add that in consequence of the introduction of this scheme the French Government has made a demand on the Papal Court that a special envoy from France shall be permitted to assist at the Council, and that Cardinal Antonelli has acknowledged the receipt of this demand, and promises to answer in a few days. The Ultra Montane journal, Le Monde, states positively that the Pope has required the Ecumenical Council to fix on a definition of personal infallibility within a week.

Mr. Cullom's Utah Bill.

(From the N. Y. ...)

Had all other hope of crushing polygamy failed, the scheme of the House Committee on Territories, the scheme of the sword, should even then be opposed to the gravest objections. The enormous cost of a war, especially when levied on a people 100,000 strong, having a good militia organization, well posted for defence, and inspired by religious fanaticism, should alone lead us to look before we leap into so serious an undertaking.

But, as a fact, we are not yet driven to this necessity. It was only the other day, comparatively, that Utah, once as remote and secluded from our people as the Sandwich Islands, was opened to "Gentile" civilization. If that civilization has anything of the all-conquering power we claim for it, surely it may be trusted to contend with the monstrosities of Utah. The Pacific Railroad should prove, and we believe will prove, a mighty lever for the overthrow of Mormondom.

Besides, it must be remembered that polygamy, though practiced by many Mormons, is neither practiced nor preached by all. Some of them declare it to be "a cross"—as, poor fellows, with as many wives as Kimball or Young, we should fancy they might find it. Polygamy was not originally a Mormon doctrine, on the contrary, the "Book of Mormon" expressly pronounces a curse on its advocates, while the "Doctrines and Covenants" especially forbid its practice. Whether Mormonism is a religious faith or a personal fanaticism, we leave others to discuss; but Mormon polygamy, at least depends solely on the life of one man. It was Brigham Young who, in defiance of the prohibitions just set forth, established polygamy under pretense of a special revelation for that purpose. What the great State Founder's object was, in procuring this "revelation," is another matter; but in spite of the supernatural authority inciting "Brother Brigham," as the Saints style him, this "ordinance" of his has never been without opponents, open or tacit.

In the testimony taken before the House Committee it was declared that "only about one-third of the adult Mormon population are polygamists," and certainly the polygamists do not appear to be in a majority. We hear that the last census showed a preponderance of males in Utah—a fact too little used in this discussion. Considering the vast influence of Brigham Young's practice and precept upon his deluded followers, and that, nevertheless, not half of the latter practically honor his doctrine of polygamy, is it too much to say that polygamy means Brigham Young? that its days are the days of the Prophet? and that when its Founder dies, polygamy will most certainly die with him, and the ancient rule of the "Book of Mormon" will become the law of the Mormon Church, as well as the law of the land?

Meanwhile let us see what elements are working to overthrow polygamy before the death of Young. We never have commended the Ashley scheme of chopping up Utah into fragments, to be divided piecemeal among her neighbors. There are various reasons, not necessary now to consider, as the project is at least postponed, for not resorting to an application quite as rude and reckless as war, and even more unjust. But letting the Territory remain as it is, the very richness of its resources must soon attract a Gentile population so great as to render the Mormon Church an insignificant fraction. Then the majority can take care of themselves and the minority will yield perforce. But long before that day we are persuaded that a little Gentile leaven will leaven the whole lump. A witness before the House Committee whose testimony is used to show why we should pass its bill ... that Brigham uses extraordinary ... against Gentile influence, and but for these ... a large number of Mormon women would marry Gentiles." Now this same witness elsewhere estimates the number of Gentiles at "not more than four or five thousand," while the Mormons are "from ninety to one hundred thousand." What can be clearer than that this testimony, by fair inference, contradicts the purpose for which it is cited? If, with Utah so remote and difficult of access that the Gentiles are in numbers to Mormons but as one to twenty, the former have exercised so powerful a pressure against polygamy, how will it be when, with the tide of railroad emigration at its flood, these numbers shall have become even? Surely the time for war has not yet come. We have yet to give peaceful, civilizing influences a fair chance.

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING MARCH 1 1870

San Juan Island Again

In the debate in the Senate last April on the San Juan question Senator Howard of Michigan delivered a powerful speech in favor of maintaining the rights of the United States in respect to that island. The speech was delivered in Executive session, and is now for the first time published, the injunction of secrecy having been removed. Senator Howard presents a clear statement of the whole controversy and shows that he has mastered the subject thoroughly. He takes the ground that the island undoubtedly belongs to the United States, and that no such thing as giving it up should be thought of. So clear is our title that he would not even refer the case to arbitration. Holding that arbitration is a mode of settlement which should not be employed in any question arising out of the foreign relations of the United States, he argues that least of all should a question of territorial limits be settled by arbitration. On this point we quote:

> I know of no precedent of the kind in our history or that of other countries. Such a mode of settlement, although not perhaps prohibited by the Constitution of the United States, is yet open to great objection. It disturbs and disappoints and the American citizen who has become a settler has invested his means on the faith of the Government, and who is unwilling to renounce his allegiance to his country and to be transferred to another. This island began to be settled by our people as early as 1850 or 1851. In 1852 it was, by the laws of Oregon Territory included in one of its counties. Territorial taxes were levied and collected there. It was after this occupancy by our citizens that the Hudson Bay Company intruded upon the island and inaugurated this dispute while our people were settling upon it.

Senator Howard's argument was against referring the case to the arbitration of the President of the Swiss Confederation. He would not place the honor and the rights of our country in the hands of a temporary head of a feeble State. Of Great Britain's claim he said:

> I cannot agree that because we have rejected the Alabama claims treaty we are called upon to relieve British mortification at that act by gracefully letting England have her way in Puget Sound. My reading and observation have made me too well acquainted with the great historic truth of her diplomacy, that she is more practiced in evading treaties than any other civilized nation. I cannot forget that after the settlement of the northeastern boundary question it turned out from maps and other evidence in her own possession but [illegible] made known to us, that her whole claim was groundless and her whole conduct little better than bluster.

The speech concludes with the following vigorous paragraph:

> It is time that that Government should understand that the people of the United States are no longer to be trifled with; that treaties made with that people [illegible] be broken but kept; that we are able, willing, determined, that the faith of England given to us in her treaties shall be kept. I say it without boasting, but she knows and we know that we have it in our power easily to compel her to do justice. Why, then, omit to warn her to surcease her usurped occupation of this island? Why permit the "joint occupation" agreed upon by General Scott in 1859 to endure longer? It may be replied, it will be followed by war. I do not believe it. But should she choose war, should she lift her weapon in attempting to enforce her claim, we must accept the issue. We must then reckon with her hilt to hilt, we must then mark down the future boundaries of this country with the point of the sword.

Nothing can be more certain than that the United States will never relinquish its claim to San Juan Island. This "joint occupation" by military forces, for which on our side there is no warrant in law, has continued for more than ten years, and Senator Howard is certainly right in declaring that it should not endure longer.

Unprofitable Political Investments

In the blunderbuss which the petty politicians of the Democratic party are firing off so [illegible] at the Chinese, there is a recoil which those who are operating the piece are beginning to discover is likely to do them great mischief. They are finding it not unlike the musket of Hudibras, which often knocked its owner over.

For the purpose of playing on the prejudices of the unthinking they have kept up an incessant clack on what they call the "Chinese question." This they have run into such follies as to disgust very many intelligent men of their own party, whose political support they will not be able to secure so long as they pursue a course at once so illiberal, demagogical and absurd.

Elsewhere the party is in a similar predicament in regard to the tariff. In Pennsylvania, for instance, the Democrats are thorough protectionists. The Democratic members of Congress from that State have recently been speaking and voting in favor of free trade, and their constituents are calling them to a reckoning. A protest signed by a large number of iron workers, who are well known and leading Democrats, has been prepared and a copy sent to each of the Pennsylvania Democrats in of the House of Representatives who voted against protection. The signers of this protest declare that, "as Democrats they are at loss to understand the motives of the Democratic members of Congress and the larger portion of the Democratic press in joining the free-trade party," and and state that if this policy is to be adopted they "must look forward to blowing out their furnaces," and that American manufactures of all kinds must suffer great depression.

Here is an argument which large numbers of Democrats can understand. It is an argument which touches them in a way to make them feel its force. They are not ready to sacrifice their own prosperity and the prosperity of the country to a party idea, and if Democratic Congressmen continue to advocate free trade many of them may as well begin to prepare for private life.

Thus the politicians who are trying to play the demagogue on these subjects are missing their object. For every voter won to their ranks by such absurd appeals on the "Chinese question" as those of Col Chapman they lose support among the intelligent enterprising and fair minded portion of their party. So by clamoring for free trade they gain nothing for their party to compensate for the loss they suffer by taking such a course. And before they get through with these things they will clearly discover that as political investments they are decidedly unprofitable.

The New Hampshire Election

The Republicans of New Hampshire elect their State ticket by a clear majority over all other tickets in the field, and secure a great majority in the Legislature. This result, under the circumstances is very gratifying. There were four tickets, viz: The Republican, the Democratic, the Temperance and the Labor Reform. The Temperance party was started with the idea of forcing the Republicans to take a position on the question of prohibition in advance of public sentiment, and it was hoped that this movement would defeat the Republicans in the election then approaching. As another movement to draw off votes from the Republicans the "Labor Reform" party was started. Democrats sought [illegible] through this [illegible] made every possible effort to create discontent among the laboring classes and to prejudice them against Republican measures. All these devices have failed. Workingmen in New Hampshire adhere to the Republican party as most worthy of their confidence and reject the bad advice of demagogues who would lead them into folly and dishonor. It is proved by the New Hampshire election that croaking so commonly heard about the tyranny of bondholders and the oppression of the laboring classes emanates entirely from unscrupulous politicians and not from the people. The people do not know that they are oppressed, and will not believe the politicians who try to persuade them that they are wearing the chains of a galling tyranny. A similar fate awaits similar demagogical movements in Oregon.

Editorial Notes

The Herald publishes a rumor to the effect that in a certain contingency the editor of the OREGONIAN will retire from his present position. Neither the editor nor the proprietor of the OREGONIAN is aware of any circumstance which points to such a probability. But there are rumors that the editor of another paper may retire ere very long. It is whispered in Democratic circles that the "playing out process" which has been fatal in the case of so many connected with the same paper heretofore, is again going on fast.

Congressman Smith is playing the role of Horatio Seymour,—"Your candidate I cannot be," etc. It will be remembered that two years ago he did a similar thing. At a time when his party was not sanguine of success he wrote from the East that he would not be a candidate for Congress; yet he returned, and, when he thought he saw a fair chance of election, crowded all others off the track. Is he playing the same game again? The reverend gentleman is shrewd and unscrupulous and may yet defeat all rivals in his party for the nomination.

The New York World continues its fierce onslaughts on the Tammany Ring. Among the many frauds and crimes which it attributes to the Ring, it accuses it of having "put up Judges in our very Court Houses to sell injustice for a price." If one half of the charges made by the World are true, the Democratic party of New York is the most corrupt organization ever known. And it will be remembered that the New York Democracy rule the whole Democratic party of the country. "The thieves of the Ring" is now the mildest term the World uses to designate the reigning dynasty of the party.

Readers of the telegraphic dispatches no doubt have frequently noticed that many of the dispatches are often unnecessarily prolix and some of them quite unimportant. Since making an addition to the editorial force of this paper a new method has been adopted in preparing the dispatches for publication. Some of them are re-written and thus pruned of unnecessary verbiage, others which contain nothing of interest, or furnish no information suited to the wants of Oregon readers, are excluded entirely, and the whole are prepared with a view of presenting all the news in the least possible space, and in the most intelligible form. Readers may rely upon it, however, that nothing will be excluded which can be of interest to them, and that the sense and meaning of the dispatches will in no case be altered. We are forced to take this method with the dispatches in order to make room for other interesting matter, and trust that our readers will be satisfied with it as a substantial improvement.

The Oregon City Enterprise is much distressed about a saloon in this city where "negroes, Chinese and the lower class of white men" congregate, and attributes the existence of this saloon to the fifteenth amendment. "If any person," says the Enterprise, "has a desire to be horrified by a picture of the future of this sinking country, they can have it by visiting this place." Now while such places are bad enough to fully justify the horror of the Enterprise, we would remind that paper that they are not now seen for the first time. There are hundreds, perhaps thousands, of them in the great Democratic city of New York. They have been flourishing there for many years, and their number has steadily increased as the Democratic majority of the city has grown larger. It is well known that the "lower class of whites" who frequent the one in this city are mostly Democrats. Is it the fifteenth amendment that forces them into such associations? It would appear that the Enterprise thinks so. If it will do that paper any good we promise to favor an amendment to keep them out of all such places.

The opposition of the Democracy to land grants, as developed in the Senate on the debate upon the Portland and Astoria railroad bill, has attracted wide attention. The New York Times says the debate on this bill "possesses significance from the fact that it is almost the first definite party opposition which a measure of this character has evoked. The Republican members voted for it in a body, at least thirty-four of them who were present, while, of the seven Democrats present, all voted in the negative. The politicians at Washington are inclined to attribute this action on the part of the Democrats not so much to a feeling of hostility to the road as to a defined policy which has been set down on the subject of these land grants by the Democracy." This view as to Democratic policy is undoubtedly correct. The question for the people of Oregon is, will they sustain a party that has declared for a policy so hostile to the material interests of our State? Are we to have national aid and sympathy in our efforts to build up our State into a prosperous commonwealth, or are we to sacrifice these advantages by allowing the Democracy to triumph?

Thus the car of progress rolls westward. The Emperor of Austria has given the Mikado of Japan a pianoforte and the Mikado's wife is taking lessons of the wife of the British Minister.

A New Jersey farmer lately sent the following note to one of the Congressmen from that State: "Dear Sir: Please send me a copy of the Agricultural report and then abolish the franking privilege."

Demas Barnes, the Brooklyn Democratic Congressman, says that twelve years of Democratic rule has raised city taxes in Brooklyn from $100,000 to $6 000 000, and in New York from $3 000 000 to $26 000 000.

Buffalo recently lost its oldest inhabitant by the death of Mrs Mary McCabe. She was born in the parish of Kilmore county Monaghan Ireland, in 1757 and was therefore 11[illegible] years of age at the time of her death. Her health was preserved to the last, her eyesight was so good that she never used spectacles, and she has attended mass every morning for years past.

The Bible in the Schools

THE CINCINNATI [illegible] DECISION IN THE SUPERIOR COURT [illegible]

CINCINNATI Ohio [illegible]

The judges of the Superior Court have rendered their decision in the case involving the question of the exclusion of the Bible from the public schools. The action was to dissolve an injunction heretofore granted to restrain the putting in force of resolutions of the School Board declaring that the reading of the Bible and religious exercises should not be permitted in the schools. Judge Hagan held that the provisions of the Constitution recognize the religion of Christianity and acknowledge that religion and morality are necessary to good government; that the State [illegible] is a means to promote good government, and therefore the exclusion of all religious instruction from the public schools is contrary to the provisions of the Bill of Rights. Judge Storer concurred in these views, and the injunction was made perpetual. Of Judge Hagan's opinion a synopsis follows:

The first question is whether the court has power to hear the case. Is it within the simple principle of equitable jurisprudence? In this class of cases it must be shown that the acts of the Board were either done in the absence of authority, or if they had authority that it was abused, and is therefore unlawful and void. The pleadings demand no affirmative relief nor is it a case for mandatory injunction. The court therefore holds that if the case is within any principle of equitable jurisprudence they have the power to grant the relief.

POWER OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

The vital inquiry is, had the Board power to pass the resolutions complained of? Is its action prohibited? or has its power been abused? Bloom vs Richards and McGetrick vs Wasson, in which the Supreme Court held that no system of religion was part of the law of Ohio, have no application, as all the pleadings demand mandatory relief. The common schools of Cincinnati are in operation under the Constitution of 1851. The seventh section of the Bill of Rights provides that religion, morality and knowledge, however being essential to good government, it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass suitable laws to protect every denomination in the peaceable enjoyment of its own mode of worship and to encourage schools and the means of instruction. The Legislature has nowhere defined the purposes of the common schools, has not prescribed the text books, nor anything relating to the administration of the system. It is claimed that to grant the relief would be to usurp the functions of the School Board, and that the difficulty can only be reached by the periodical election of school trustees. But the Legislature has passed suitable laws, and the proposition assumes that the Board may do what the Legislature cannot do, so that we are remitted to the construction of the Constitution, for neither the Legislature nor the Board can determine this question.

OBJECTION TO RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Considering these objections in order, we have the following propositions:

First—These provisions of the Constitution tend to the homogeneity of the populations and contain the true philosophy of government.

Second—The State is [illegible] to society and originates in God. They are therefore inseparable. The State needs the bonds and salutation of religious teaching, but nothing more.

Third—This appears from the legislation for the protection of religious worship.

Fourth—The State uses both sects and schools as instrumentalities to secure its end.

Fifth—It is the political value of religion, morality and knowledge which the State proposes to secure, and it is only on this ground that taxation for the protection of religious worship and encouragement for instruction is justified. Donohue vs Richards (48 Maine, 379) was a case in which it was held that laws are not unconstitutional because they violate conscience.

Sixth—Section 2 article 6 of the Constitution simply provides that no sect or sects shall by law control any part of the school fund.

Seventh—Bloom vs Richards and McGetrich vs. Wasson have no application in this case.

Eighth—We have nothing to do with the consequences of a proper construction of the law. The conscience must be subordinated to the public good, just as we surrender other natural rights for the same end.

Ninth—We are not to determine the religion, morality and knowledge intended by the Constitution.

Tenth—If we worship science, or art, or collective wisdom, [illegible], in any sense, and make that worship a manifestation of our religious convictions, these resolutions would prohibit instructions therein.

Eleventh—The pupils of the high schools read the Holy Bible with appropriate singing, and the Greek Testament, and there is no complaint, nor yet by children without parents, nor yet by those who are worse than orphans. Our common schools cannot be secularized, though it is a question whether it would not be better that they should be; but, in the view of the Constitution which we have taken, the resolutions are void. In other views of the resolutions it may be said that Christianity is the prevailing religion in the scale. The moral sense of the people is controlled by it, and whatever is opposed undermines the moral support of the laws and corrupts the community. It is not claimed that the Bible does not teach all the virtues and graces that adorn private and public life.

Finally, a thoughtful survey of our individual weakness and imperfection will certainly teach us to cultivate a spirit of mutual forbearance and charity, and we shall the better labor for the elevation of our race, and spread truth and civilization on the earth. The injunction must be made perpetual.

OPINION OF JUDGE STOVER

Judge Stover began by a brief statement of the case, making prominent the fact that the practice of reading the Bible in the schools began in the city fifty years ago and had continued ever since, but provisions had been made in this time to excuse from that exercise any pupil whose parent or guardian desired it. He continued:

To this rule no offense was taken until 1869, when the School Board passed these resolutions. The defendants justify this action of the School Board on the ground that many tax payers are not believers in the Bible, that the members of the Catholic Church do not believe that St. James' version is correct and complete, and that others are, by disbelief, precluded by conscience from attending the schools. * * *

Separated from all irrelevant matter, the propositions are: Had the defendants in the exercise of their discretion, the legal right to declare that the Bible should not be read in the schools? If no such power existed may the Court restrain the Board? The provision of the Constitution recognizes the existence of the Supreme Being, but gives no preference to sects. The protection it gives to religious worship, we may well conclude is not intended to apply to those who, like the Athenians, worship the unknown God. It is the Christian religion that is recognized by the Constitution. The Legislature sustained this view by exempting the family Bible from execution, by providing that each apprentice shall be provided with one, that a Bible shall be in the hands of every inmate of a jail, penitentiary and reformatory institution. All this is at the public expense, and it is now claimed that the Bible cannot be read in the common schools. Nay, more, our halls of legislation and our Courts of justice are supplied with copies of the Bible and it is only from the common schools that it is sought to be expelled, thus making them the only exception to the general recognition of the Bible as the exponent of morality and religion. The lowest view we can take of the religion contemplated and recognized by the Constitution is that which acknowledges a Supreme Being not the creature of the imagination but as revealed in our consciousness and the worship of that Being. We conclude that the revealed religion of the Bible is that which is meant by the Constitution and has been recognized by the Constitution and the legislation of the General Assembly. On no other ground can blasphemy be made criminal.

The defendants claim that the instruction referred to in the bill of rights means the cultivation of the sense of right and wrong, and that the only religion meant by that instrument is written in human nature. But by this rule there would be no standard and every man would be a law unto himself. The strife of opinion would be uncontrolled and the moral power of the country would be dependent on individual caprice. We do not admit the assertion that the Bible leads to sectarianism: this is the work of man, not of God. The Scriptures teach we are all of one origin, but the human [illegible] different. We learn from the Bible to forgive injuries [illegible] the profoundest systems of human philosophy. A system that teaches immortality cannot teach exclusiveness.

The reading of the Bible is not an act of worship. The lessons which are naturally there tending to elevate the mind and soul and heart. Its object is to elevate the mind and give wholesome lessons in moral rectitude. No religious test is required, no act of worship, no sectarianism. These resolutions are a sweeping edict, and leave the pupils not only without a hope, but without a God. Not even natural religion may be taught. If a pupil asks about his origin he may be referred to geology but not to Genesis. If one asks why the Sabbath is observed the teacher must ask permission of the Board of Education before the question can be answered. In the whole case we find that we have complete jurisdiction; that the case presents equitable grounds for our interference; that the powers of the defendants [illegible], and the injunction must be made perpetual.

Judge Taft delivered a dissenting opinion holding that the Board had acted within its legal powers.

We learn that Mr D P Thompson of Oregon City has [illegible] for surveying the Nez Perces [illegible] at an estimated cost of $11,000 for the entire work.

The McMinnville [illegible] furnishes the following [illegible]: During the months of January and February there were recorded 51 [illegible] in Yamhill county [illegible] transferred for $ [illegible] 21 lots in McMinnville for $1 [illegible] lots in Dayton for $650; 21 lots in Amity [illegible]. During the month of January the County Clerk issued six and during February three marriage licenses.

The Salem Statesman says: It is the intention of Drs Payton and Carpenter to commence operations on their Hospital building, a short distance northeast of Salem immediately. The material is all on the ground and as soon as the weather settles a building 100x25 two stories high, will be commenced. Those two gentlemen have secured fifteen acres of ground and have it well laid out, the intention being to make the Infirmary not only a [illegible] place [illegible] to which sick [illegible] at any time.

The Washington correspondent of the Eugene Journal, writing Feb. 11th, makes the following reference to Oregonians at the east: Senator Corbett and wife left here last Friday night, to visit Mrs Corbett's mother, who is lying very ill, at her home in Massachusetts. Mrs Senator Williams is in Pennsylvania, visiting Judge Williams' daughter, who is afflicted with a severe spell of sickness. Mr Chaplin, Receiver of the Land Office at La Grande, left here for New York yesterday and expects to be in Oregon before the first of April. Messrs Olney, Gaston, Dowell, and D P Thompson, are here.

The land on which the old North Dutch Church, corner of Fulton and William streets, New York, now stands, is offered on lease for sixty three years. The church was 100 hundred years old on the 25th day of May last and now it is to be demolished.

The villagers of Baldwinsville, Long Island, have manufactured effigies of the Mormon bishops and elders and hung them in trees adjoining the railroad track so that all can see them.

SOUTH AMERICAN EMIGRATION SCHEME.—[illegible] that there is a scheme mooted in thi[illegible] to make up a company of ten, fifteen or t[illegible] men, with or without families, for the purp[illegible] emigrating to and settling a small colony in [illegible] nos Ayres, South America. The plan is to o[illegible] ize such a company, charter a vessel, [illegible] with lumber and spars and at as early a d[illegible] [illegible] to set sail for the new ho[illegible] [illegible] is considered a sufficient number for the [illegible] ter of the vessel, and it is believed that the c[illegible] when sold at Buenos Ayres or at any port o[illegible] de la Plata, will considerably more than pa[illegible] charter fee and all other expenses of re[illegible] [illegible]. But for the purpose of making a co[illegible] for self protection, and in order to have some[illegible] of American society, it is desired that the nu[illegible] shall, if possible, be made up to twenty. [illegible] Government of Buenos Ayres is one of the [illegible] liberal toward foreigners, of all the Sou[illegible] States. A resolution was adopted which requires the [illegible] to establish a grade for all streets [illegible] Caruthers line and C street—where [illegible] is not now established—except B street [illegible]

AN AMERICAN EMIGRATION SCHEME.—We learn that there is a scheme mooted in this city to raise a company of ten, fifteen or twenty [illegible] with or without families, for the purpose of [illegible] to and settling a small colony in Buenos Ayres, South America. The plan is to organize a company, charter a vessel, load her [illegible] and spars and at as early a day as [illegible] set sail for the new home. Ten [illegible] a sufficient number for the charter of the vessel, and it is believed that the cargo, [illegible] at Buenos Ayres, or at any port on Rio [illegible] will considerably more than pay the [illegible] and all other expenses of removal [illegible] the purpose of making a colony [illegible] and in order to have something [illegible] society, it is desired that the number [illegible] possible, be made up to twenty The [illegible] of Buenos Ayres is one of the most [illegible] toward foreigners, of all the Southern [illegible] If we are not mistaken it gives some in[illegible] besides the privilege of taking lands. [illegible] the La Plata and the regions trading [illegible] of that river, are largely settled by [illegible] population of foreigners, among whom [illegible] form a considerable element The [illegible] one of the most famous of all the grazing [illegible] of the world, and the principal wealth [illegible] is in its trade in wool and hides, of [illegible] of cargoes are sent out every year [illegible] Liverpool and other markets The [illegible] said to be remarkably well adapted in [illegible] of climate, grasses and water to the raising [illegible] and sheep, and the company now be[illegible] proposes to go into that business [illegible] in which it is proposed to settle is [illegible] south. Going out of the valley [illegible] Plata, the table lands near some tributary of that river will probably be selected, as [illegible] the most equable and temperate climate. [illegible] table lands are said to be also remarkably healthy. Taking the views of those engaged in [illegible] is correct, the project offers many real [illegible] and it is said that already quite a [illegible] people are talking very favorably of [illegible] to join the colony We are not [illegible] however, at present, to mention any [illegible]

MISS GERTRUDE GREGORY'S BENEFIT.—Notwithstanding the stormy weather last evening there was a full house at Oro Fino, in honor of Miss Gertrude's benefit. Every act from first to last was given in that excellent style for which the Gregorys are famous, eliciting rounds of applause. The fair beneficiary though eminently [illegible] must have been quite satisfied with her share of the approval thus given the troupe The [illegible] closed with last evening and as it has been [illegible] one, the manager wishes to testify [illegible] gratitude to the people of Portland He au[illegible] us to say that upon the return of the troupe from Salem, a benefit will be given to the [illegible] Fire Department—on Monday night the 14th inst.

NO PLACE LIKE OREGON.—The party of im[illegible] consisting of Messrs Smith, Wilbur and [illegible] who went out in company with Mr [illegible] to look at farming lands etc have re[illegible] after an absence of two days making a circuit of some sixty miles They are well [illegible] with the looks of the country and have [illegible] to purchase lands and become permanent settlers They say that they had heard much in favor of Oregon before coming here and are now perfectly satisfied that there has been no misrepresentation whatever Mr Smith expresses the opinion that we may reasonably expect a large emigration the present season

BRIEF MENTION.—The Gregory matinee yesterday afternoon was well attended as was also the [illegible] matinee at the Plaza

The St Helen's Academy block is being enclosed by a neat fence

The telegraph line south was down part of the day yesterday, ditto, the Dalles line

A chilly uncomfortable day yesterday with the thermometer down to forty degrees

The Gregory Troupe will go to Salem to day by steamer

The steamer will sail this afternoon at one o'clock.

A NEW SORT OF OATS.—We saw at Messrs Everding & Beebe's produce house yesterday a specimen of what is called the "English Barley Oats." Messrs E & B received by the last steamer one sack of these oats for seed and we [illegible] them that they will distribute them in various parts of the State for trial in our soil The berry is somewhat shorter than our common oats, but much more plump and very heavy We predict that the variety will be received with great favor.

PREVAILING.—Coughs and colds incidents of our late frosty mornings have been threatening [illegible] almost entirely for a week past

The Willamette Bridge Act

The following is the text of the law authorizing the building of a bridge across the Willamette river at this city

AN ACT giving the consent of the United States to the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river in Oregon from the City of Portland to the east bank of said river

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled That the consent of the United States is hereby given to the corporation of the City of Portland in the State of Oregon to erect [illegible] a bridge with [illegible] swing [illegible] always and [illegible] ways and double draws over and across the Willamette river between the City of Portland and the east bank of said river at any time within six years after the passage of this act Provided That the said bridge shall be so constructed and built as not to obstruct impair or injuriously modify the navigation of the river and in order to secure a [illegible] plan with these conditions the corporation association or company proposing to erect the same previous to commencing the construction of the bridge shall submit to the Secretary of War a plan of the bridge with a detailed map of the river at the proposed site of the bridge and for the distance of a mile above and below the site exhibiting the depths and currents at all points of the same together with all other information touching said bridge and river as [that] may be deemed necessary by the Secretary of War to determine whether the said bridge when built will conform to the prescribed conditions of the act not to obstruct impair or injuriously modify the navigation of the river Provided further That the Secretary of War may detail an officer to superintend the survey and examination of said river with a view to said location

SEC 2 And be it further enacted That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed upon receiving said plan and map and other information and upon being satisfied that a bridge built on such plan [plan] and at said locality will conform to the prescribed conditions of this act not to obstruct, impair or injuriously modify the navigation of said river to notify the said corporation association or company proposing to erect the same that he approves the same, and upon receiving such notification, the said corporation association or company may proceed to the erection of said bridge conforming strictly to the approved plan and location But until the Secretary of War approve the plan and location of said bridge and notify the said corporation association or company of the same the bridge shall not be built or commenced

SEC 3 And be it further enacted That the said corporation of the city of Portland is hereby authorised and empowered so far as Congress has the power to grant the same, to make such rules and regulations for the care of said bridge and for the regulation and collection of tolls for crossing on the same as they shall deem just and reasonable.

Approved, February 2 1870

A Body and Mind Diseased

Such is dyspepsia The stomach and the brain are too intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other so that dyspepsia and despondency are inseparable It may be added, too that irritation of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by irritation of the temper

The invigorating and tranquilizing operations of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is most powerfully developed in cases of indigestion The first effect of this agreeable tonic is comforting and encouraging A mild glow pervades the system, the chronic uneasiness in the region of the stomach is lessened and the nervous restlessness which characterizes the disease is abated. The improvement is not transient It is not succeeded by the return of the old symptoms with superadded force, as is always the case when unmedicated stimulants are given for the complaint. Each dose seems to impart a permanent accession of health ful invigoration But this is not all. The aperient and anti bilious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary in importance to its tonic virtues If there is an overflow of bile the secretion is soon brought within proper limits and if the biliary organ is inert and torpid it is toned and regulated The effect upon the discharging organs is equally salutary and in cases of constipation the cathartic action is just sufficient to produce the desired result gradually and without pain The Bitters also promote healthy evaporation from the surface which is particularly desirable when sudden changes check the natural perspiration and produce congestion of the liver, coughs and colds The best safeguard against all diseases is bodily vigor, and this the great Vegetable Restorative essentially promotes

ISION IN U. S. CIRCUIT COURT IN RAILWAY SUIT.

ERSON HAS A RIGHT TO ACQUIRE PROPERTY BY RCHASE OR GIFT FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAINAINING A SUIT IN THIS COURT CONCERNING THE AME—PLEAS TO BILL IN EQUITY, WHEN IN BAR ND WHEN IN ABATEMENT—TWO OR MORE CANOT BE PLEADED, UNLESS, ETC.—A STOCKHOLDR OR CREDITOR OF A CORPORATION CANNOT AINTAIN A SUIT FOR AN INJURY TO THE CORPOATE RIGHTS, UNLESS IT APPEARS IN THE BILL HAT SUCH CORPORATION REFUSED TO TAKE ROPER MEASURES TO PROTECT SUCH INTEREST. N ALLEGATION THAT THE CORPORATION REUSED TO BRING "THIS SUIT" NOT SUFFICIENT

U. S. Circuit Court—District of Oregon, Tuesy, March 8, 1870.

James B. Newby vs. The Oregon Central Railay Co., et al.—In equity.

This suit was brought to enjoin the defendants om using the name of the complainant's corporation—The Oregon Central Railway Company—d particularly from issuing bonds in the name said corporation. It is alleged in the Bill that e complainant is the owner and holder of two of id corporation's bonds, of the denomination of ,000 each, and that for reasons stated in the ill, the use of such name by the defendants and e issuing of such bonds by them, do and will depreciate the market value of complainant's bonds his damage not less than $1,000.

At the May term, 1869, the cause was heard on emurrer to the Bill. On the argument a cause of demurrer was assigned ore tenus:—"That it oes not appear from the Bill that the complainant's corporation had refused to institute this it, and therefore it should have been brought the name of said corporation."

On August 3d, 1869, the Court sustained the emurrer as above assigned, and decided that the omplainant's corporation must be made a party the suit; and that if such corporation, after equest by the complainant, refuses to bring such it, the latter may allege such refusal in his ill, and make the corporation a party defendant.

Afterwards the complainant had leave to amend he Bill, which he did, by making his corporation party defendant thereto, and by alleging "that before commencing this suit your orator requested hat said defendant corporation, whose bonds our orator holds and owns, as aforesaid, to bring his suit for his protection, and the said last named corporation refused so to do, and do still refuse to aid your orator aforesaid."

To the Bill as amended the natural persons named therein as defendants, demurred. The corporation charged with the wrongful use of the corporate name, filed two pleas to distinct portions of the Bill and demurred to the remainder. The complainant's corporation made default.

On January 4, 1870, the defendants moved to dismiss the Bill under Equity Rule 38, because the complainant had not replied to the pleas, or set down the same, or the demurrers, for argument. The motion was denied, because it did not appear that the complainant had notice of the filing of such pleas or demurrers, by entry in the order book, as prescribed in Equity Rule 4. Afterwards, by consent of parties, the pleas and demurrers were set down for argument on February.

On the argument, the cause was submitted on the part of the complainant with an admission as to the sufficiency of the second plea. The defendants filed a written brief in support of both pleas and demurrers.

Both pleas are voluminous and full of details, and are pleaded as pleas in abatement.

In effect, the first one alleges that the complainant is not the real owner of the two bonds mentioned in the Bill, but that the same were merely transferred and delivered to him by a director of this corporation, for the sole purpose of enabling him to maintain this suit in this court, for the benefit of, or in behalf of such corporation.

If, notwithstanding the rhetorical exaggerations of this plea, it appears that the complainant has the legal title to, or interest in these bonds, then this plea is insufficient. They are payable to bearer and the title to them passes by delivery, unless the contrary is shown. The motive with which they were delivered to the complainant or [illegible] no difference in this respect. Parties have a clear right to become the owners of property real or personal, by purchase or gift, for the express purpose of maintaining a suit in this court concerning the same. In some of the earliest cases there are some dicta to the contrary of this, but their authority has not been [illegible]. Admitting all that can be claimed for the plea, and probably more than ought to be, it only amounts to an allegation that the father of the complainant delivered him these bonds as a gift, with the mutual understanding or expectation that the latter would commence and maintain this suit as the owner thereof. In all this there was nothing illegal or immoral or fraudulent. [illegible] no rule of law or public policy which requires the National Courts to discourage persons from seeking redress in these tribunals in every case where the constitution and laws fairly confer and will permit it. This plea, I think, should be held insufficient.

The second plea alleges that it is not true that the complainant, before bringing this suit, requested his corporation to bring the same for his protection; and also, that prior to the commencement thereof, such corporation did commence a suit in the Circuit Court for the county of Marion, to enjoin the defendants herein from using such corporate name and from issuing such bonds, and that such suit is still pending in said court, and being prosecuted therein in good faith, by said complainant's corporation.

Before disposing of this plea, I propose to call attention to the impropriety of pleading double in this [illegible].

A plea, in equity is a special answer showing why the suit should be dismissed, delayed or barred, and that therefore the complainant ought not to have the answer of the defendant to the matters stated in the Bill. It may consist of matter dehors the Bill—new matter—then called a pure plea or of a denial of some of the substantial matters set forth in the Bill. (Story's E. P. 649, 651.) Two matters of defence cannot be stated in one plea, nor should a plea contain various facts, unless they are all conducive to a single point, which constitutes a single defence. Otherwise it is open to the charge of duplicity and multifariousness. (Story's E. P. 653 f.) Two pleas in a suit are never allowed, even in bar, except in a particular case, by leave of the Court first obtained, where great inconvenience might otherwise be sustained. A plea is not the only mode of defence to a suit in equity. It is only allowed for the purpose of enabling a defendant to make a defence upon some single point or matter, and thereby avoid the expense, delay and inconvenience of answering the Bill in detail. But if the defendant is allowed to plead several pleas to as many parts of the Bill and thereby put the whole or any great part of it in issue, nothing is gained in this respect, but rather the contrary (Story's E. P. 657; 7 John. Ch. 214; 10 Paige Ch. 515; Lamb et ux vs. Starr et al. C. C. Dist. of Oregon, Jan. Term, 1865.)

Nor do I think the first plea is a plea in abatement. It is an allegation that the complainants has no property in the bonds, and is therefore without interest in the subject matter of the suit. Such a fact, or facts showing this conclusion, may be pleaded in bar of the suit. (Story's E. P. 728) A plea of bankruptcy of the plaintiff, being in effect a plea that the plaintiff has no title, so far as he is concerned, is a plea in bar. (Ibid. 726)

But as no steps have been taken to strike out the double plea or compel the defendants to elect which one they will rely upon, and as the complainant on the argument practically admitted the sufficiency of the second plea, it will be assumed for the present, that the defendants in filing the second plea abandoned the first.

In accordance with the opinion expressed at the hearing on the original Bill and demurrer thereto, this second plea is sufficient and constitutes a good defence to the suit. By it the defendants controvert the allegation of the amended Bill, that the complainant's corporation had refused to bring this suit for the protection of his interests.

This is a plea to the person in the nature of a plea in abatement, and corresponds to the dilatory plea of the Civil Law. It does not dispute the validity of the rights which are made the subject of the suit, nor the plaintiff's interest therein, but objects to the complainant's present ability to maintain a suit concerning them (Ibid 705-7).

Since the decision of this court sustaining the demurrer ore tenus to the original Bill, I have received the opinion (in sheets) of the Supreme Court in the case of "The City of Memphis et al. vs. Dean (December Term, 1868). In this respect the case is very similar to the one under consideration, and the court then held that a stockholder could only maintain a suit to protect his interest in the corporate property where the corporation refuse to do so. The defence in that case was the same as in this—a denial of the allegation that the corporation had refused, but that on the contrary they were then maintaining a suit for that purpose.

The complainant having signified his intention not to contest the plea upon the proof, it follows that the Bill must be dismissed, because of the complainant's inability to sue.

In this view of the matter it is not necessary to pass upon the several demurrers of the defendants, but their counsel is urgent that the court shall decide the questions raised by these demurrers.

Upon looking at the demurrer of the corporation, I find that all the questions made by it were decided adversely to the defendants on the demurrer to the original Bill, except the objection that the complainant's corporation is not a proper party defendant. The reason given in support of this objection is, that such corporation being a citizen of this State could not have maintained this suit against these defendants who are also citizens of this State.

The facts are admitted but the conclusion does not follow. The inability of a party to sue in this court is no test of his liability to be sued in it. While a suit cannot be maintained in this court by a citizen of the State against a citizen of the State, yet every such citizen is liable to be sued in this court by a citizen of another State. So, while it is true that the complainant's corporation cannot sue the defendant corporation in this court, because of their common citizenship, yet it is equally true, that the complainant being a citizen of California may sue either or both of these corporations in this court. The questions are different and have no sort of relation to or dependence upon one another. (Woolsey vs. Dodge 18 How. 345 61. In this case and in The City of Memphis et al. vs. Dean, cited above, the complainant's corporation was a citizen of the same State with the other defendants and could not have maintained a suit in those courts against its co-defendants, yet in both those cases such corporation was made a party defendant.

All the questions specially made by the demurrer of the other defendants have also been decided adversely to them. But under the general allegation of this demurrer, "that the amended bill does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of suit," in the written argument of counsel for defendants it is specially maintained that the complainant has not a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the controversy to enable him to maintain this suit; and that the refusal of the complainant's corporation to bring this suit for his protection is not such a breach of trust or neglect of duty, as gives the complainant a right of suit.

The first of these objections—the want of interest in the subject matter—was considered by court in disposing of the demurrer to the original bill. It was then held, that the complainant, being the owner of the corporation's bonds, was its creditor, and that if he had a lien upon the lands of the corporation as a security for the payment of such bonds, he had as much interest in the subject matter as a mere stockholder, and might for the same reasons maintain this suit "to prevent another corporation from obtaining the same land by the wrongful use of the name of the corporation whose bonds he holds (2 Blatch. 346.") As to whether it sufficiently appeared from the bill, that the complainant had such a lien, the court said was not clear, and did not decide: and no reason is shown why there should be any other or different conclusion at this time.

The complainant also maintained his right to bring this suit to protect his interest in the bonds of the corporation, as a species of property, having a conventional market value depending upon the probable resources and prospects of the corporation that issued them. Upon this point the court on the demurrer to the original bill expressed no opinion, and I do not deem it necessary to do so now.

As to the second of these objections—the refusal of the complainant's corporation to bring this suit. I think it is well taken. The allegation is not sufficient to enable the complainant to sue. It was impossible for such corporation, to have brought this suit,—being a citizen of the same State with the defendants. But admitting that complainant's corporation might have brought this suit, and refused, it does not follow that it refused to bring any suit—for instance, a suit in the State Court. In choosing between remedies, which are presumed to be equally effective, the corporation has a right to exercise its judgment. For an error in judgment in this respect neither stockholders or creditors can sue the corporation or call it to account. (Woolsey vs. Dodge, 18 How, 341.) But as has been said, the complainant's corporation could not have brought this suit. The law of the land did not permit or authorize it, and therefore its refusal to do so when requested by the complainant, was neither a neglect of duty or breach of trust, which gave the complainant a right of suit. The allegation is insufficient, and the amended Bill in this respect is no better than the original one.

Both on the ground of the sufficiency of the second plea (the plaintiff not desiring to contest the matter upon the proof) and this cause of demurrer, the Bill must be dismissed.

Mitchell for defendants.

By action had at a meeting of the Union Republican Central Committee of Marion county, held in Salem, Feb 12th, 1870, the citizens of the county are invited to meet in their several precincts, on Saturday, March 19th, 1870, and select delegates to a county convention, to meet at the court house at Salem, March 26th, 1870, for the purpose of electing twenty-four delegates to attend the State Convention at Portland, Thursday, April 7th; and for the nomination of Representatives and county officers for the ensuing term, and the transaction of such other business as properly belongs to such convention.

According to the rule adopted by the Committee, the number of delegates to which each precinct will be entitled to is as follows: Salem 13, East Salem 8, North Salem 6, Aurora 6, Butteville 4, Champoeg 3, Fairfield 4, Belpassi 4, Labish 4, Abiqua 4, Silverton 7, Sublimity 4, Howell Prairie 4, Jefferson 5, Lincoln 6. Total 83.

J. H. MOORES, Chairman.

Umatilla County Union Republican Convention.

The Union Republican voters of Umatilla county, will meet at their respective places of voting in each precinct in said county on Saturday, the 19th day of March, A. D. 1870, at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M. of said day, to elect delegates to the County Convention to be held at Pendleton on Saturday, the 26th day of March, A. D. 1870, for the purpose of electing five delegates to represent said county in the Union Republican State Convention, to be held in Portland on the 7th day of April, 1870.

The several precincts are entitled to the following number of delegates: Umatilla City, 5, Alta, 4; Walla Walla, 5; Wild Horse, 4; Butter Creek, 2, Upper Umatilla, 5; Willow Creek, 2, Meadows, 3.

By order of the Union Republican County Committee.
JONATHAN SWIFT,
Acting Chairman.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, March 9, 1870.

Portland Legal Tender rates to-day, 88c.

The money market presents no new features worthy of special mention. Borrowers are not numerous and the banks have perhaps more than the usual supply of money seeking investment. Interest rates, however, remain unchanged. The lethargy prevailing in the produce market and in real estate circles, has brought about a dull market for money lenders. Currency remains scarce, and in view of the amounts wanted soon for payment of annual income taxes the scarcity is likely to be felt as a hardship. Merchants complain somewhat of the tardiness of interior debtors, but at the same time they are not making any extended calls on the banks for monetary aid.

We find in the Chicago Republican's commercial article of February 22, a paragraph which accounts for a recent shipment of silver coin from Canada to New York to be used by restaurants and other houses in making change, and which also accounts in part for the early resumption of "specie payments" by numerous business houses in various cities and towns of the North. The paragraph says the banks of Quebec have large amounts of Canadian small coin hoarded away, and it seems that this has been brought about by the influx of American silver coin which is intrinsically less valuable. It is added "The 'silver nuisance' in Canada still continues. The latest scheme for its abatement is to tax it out of existence. Thus an American fifty-cent piece is to rate at forty cents, twenty-five at twenty, ten at eight, and five at four cents." It is not at all surprising then that the New York dealers buy silver coin in Canada and pass it out over their counters in change for legal tenders and national bank notes. Silver bought at 20 per cent discount and paid in change for currency which is only at ten per cent. discount from gold, is no bad operation for the dealer.

The local markets are without change. Dealers generally are in good spirits, having all the time a trade which is something better than dull, and having as they think a prospect for a good business in the spring. There was a trifle more than the usual amount of activity to-day, though bills sold were generally small.

At A. B. Richardson's auction sale to-day, a considerable lot of damaged wooden ware, ex-bark Edward James, sold at figures nearly up to regular prices for goods in good condition.

Lot 8 in block 26 was sold at auction for $1,240—Mr. P. D. Dodge being the buyer.

The receipts of leading articles of produce to-day were: Apples, 37 boxes; bacon, 35 cs; bran, 100 sks; butter, 20 hf bbls; dried apples, 41 hf bbls; eggs, 42 boxes; furs, 1 bale; flour, 2,073 qr sks; feed, 200 sks; lard, 2 hf bbls, oats, 40 sks; potatoes, 50 gunnies; wheat, 1,466 bags.

Matters in the Interior.

The Oregon Republican (Polk county) says fall sown wheat in that part of the valley is looking very fine, and that farmers are sowing a greater breadth of ground, new and old, than usual. Advices from other parts of the State are to the same effect. The grain-growing valleys East of the mountains will raise a larger crop according to present prospects, than ever before.

The following two paragraphs are from the Walla Walla Union of the 5th:

Horses suitable for packing or riding to the mines are plenty, and sell cheap in this place. Parties coming from below can buy them cheaper here than they can buy and ship from below.

Our farmers have had such a favorable winter for plowing that there are now several hundreds of acres plowed and ready for the seed. Owing to the unusual amount of rain that has fallen last fall and this winter, there is no danger of drouth and an abundant crop may be expected, which, from present indications, will bring a fair price, and we may look for a good time soon.

Mr. H. Y. Thompson, City Recorder of Salem, furnishes the following figures in relation to the value of property in that city: Value of real estate, $933,312; value of personal property, 460,846; reduction of indebtedness, $216,413; total net valuation, $1,182,745. This shows a gain of $200,000 during the past year.

The McMinnville Blade of the 5th, says: "Mr. M. S. Hart, contractor on the McMinnville canal, has commenced work with about forty men. It is his intention to push the work forward with all possible dispatch. We expect to see the canal completed before the rainy season, next fall, and trust that no obstacle will be met with to prevent a consummation so important to our town and county."

Shipping Intelligence.

The steamship California will sail from Victoria for this port, on Friday the 11th.

Twelve vessels were reported last week, as loading or just arrived to load, with lumber, at various mills on Puget Sound. The lumber business seems to be active just now.

The steamship Moses Taylor will sail to-morrow afternoon, with a heavy produce freight.

New York, Liverpool and San Francisco Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.

Wednesday Evening—Gold closed at noon at 110½, lowest quotations since July, 1862.

United States 5-20's were quoted in New York to-day at 109½ for 1862, and 107¾ for 1867.

Sterling 108½@109½.

The Liverpool quotation for California wheat to-day stands at 9s 2d.

Government 5-20's are quoted in this market at 98¼a99 for 1862, and 97¼a99¾ for 1867.

The supply of money is on the increase, owing to the demand for business purposes. Call loans at bank have been fairly settled in the old groove, at 1¼a1½ per cent. The rates for exchange and bullion are as follows: Coin drafts on Atlantic cities 1¼a1½ per cent; currency drafts 8½a8¾ per cent; premium on gold telegrams 1¾ per cent; exchange on London, 48¾d for 60 day banker's bills, and 49¼a49½d for commercial bills.

Gold bars 890a900; silver bars par to ½ per cent premium. Bulk of the Mexican dollars brought by the last steamer realized 6 per cent.

There have been no further receipts of beef by railroad during the week. Upwards of 1,000 sheep came to hand on Monday, from Santa Cruz Island, and another lot is expected in a day or two. Market steady; we quote slaughterer's price to-day as follows: American beef, first quality, 11a12½c; second quality, 9a10c per lb; American, 3d quality, 8a9c per lb. Veal sells at 10a18 per lb. Mutton ranges from 7 to 8½, and lamb-dressed mutton, 9a11c per lb. Pork, undressed, 5½a6¼; dressed, 8a9 per lb, outside figure for grain fed.

Flour—Two of the principal mills in this city are idle, and others are running on half time, which indicates the dullness in the market. Sale of 300 bbls Imperial Oregon extra, per Montana, prior to arrival, $5 50. We quote Oregon makes at $4a4 50 for superfine, and $5a5 50 for extra, outside brands being hard to move. The jobbing rates for San Francisco brands are as follows: superfine, in sks, per 196 lbs, $4 87½a4 62½; extra in sks, $5 25a5 50.

Wheat—Superfine grades range from $1 35a1 50, while fair to strictly choice command $1 35a1 65 per 100 lbs. At the close, 700 sks good, $1 55; 632 sks choice, $1 62½ per 100 lbs.

Barley—The extremes of the market appear to be $1 10a1 25 per 100 lbs.

Oats—Oregon, $1 60a1 65, and California, $1 25a1 50 per 100 lbs. Sale of 700 sks Oregon, $1 60a1 65 per 100 lbs.

New York Market—California products were quoted in New York to-day as follows: Flour—$5 50a6 50. Wheat—$1 40a1 50. Hides—21a21½c for dry and 11½c for green, an advance caused by the decline in gold. Wool—21a26c for fall and 25a35 for spring.

A dividend of 1 per cent. for February, amounting to $50,000, has been declared by the Bank of California, payable on the 15th inst.

Wholesale and Jobbing Markets.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS—The season is rapidly advancing when farming tools will be in demand. The stocks on hand are large beyond all precedent, and prices for the spring months will probably rule lower than heretofore. In a few days we shall furnish a table of prices of all seasonable articles.

BAGS AND BAGGING—Burlap bags, 22x36, 12c each; do, 23x40, 13c; Dundee gunnies, 16½c; linen bagging, per yd, 11½c. burlap, per yd, 11½c.

BUILDING MATERIALS.—New Jersey Cement, ⅌ bbl., $5 00; Knapp's, $4 50@5 00; Santa Cruz Lime, ⅌ bbl., $2 75; San Juan do., $2 75; Calcine Plaster, $5 00; Land, $3 50. Lumber—Assorted rough fir, $14 @16; dressed, $22@30; flooring, $26@30; laths, $3 per M; cedar shingles, $2 50; redwood boards, dressed, $47 50@50; Eastern hardware, 15@20c per foot.

There is more than the usual activity for the winter season in building, and consequently prices for fir lumber are well maintained. The city mills have been in constant operation during the winter without being able to manufacture any surplus.

BROOMS.—Oregon make, No. 1, $6 25 ⅌ doz.; No. 2, $5 25 ⅌ doz., No. 3, $4 25 ⅌ doz.; California make, No. 1, $5 50@6; No. 2, $4 50@5; No. 3, $3 50@4. Oregon made are generally preferred, for the reason that none but first class material is used, and the manufacture is strictly upon honor.

CANDLES—Giants, 19@19½; Emery's, 18c; Kelly's, 14c; Star, 19c; Ward's, 19c; Harkness', 24; Macy's, 19; Schmidt's 15c; Goss', 18½.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fœtid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy5d4ptf
